Author identification

SPRINGER NATURE GROUP

Email invite to complete identification process

Once the article is editorially accepted by the journal, the corresponding author receives an email invitation to complete the identification process and specify their affiliation

The corresponding author acts on behalf of all the other authors for this article. They are responsible for reviewing and accepting the terms of the publishing agreement, and for arranging any payment if required

SPRINGER NATURE

Dear Dr. Charles Darwin

We're delighted that your article has been accepted for publication: 'The zoology of the voyage of H.M.S. Beagle'.

You now need to:

- Provide details to help us check whether your article processing charge (APC) is covered by your institution or a journal partner.
- Read and accept your publishing agreement.
- Make a payment if the APC is not covered.

If you want to publish subscription, instead of open access, there will be an option to do that in the following steps.

Continue with publishing your article:

Open access

Publishing open access with us (gold OA) lets you share and re-use your article immediately after publication.

The article processing charge (APC) to publish your article open access is:

Article processing charge (excluding local taxes)	£3780.10 / $4080.50 / €4120.90
---	---------------------------------

Some organisations will pay some or all of your APC.

We will now check whether your APC is covered by any of our agreements.

If you want to publish subscription, instead of open access, there will be an option to do that in the following steps.

* 4 b) Change institutional affiliation

Authors shall select their institution so the system can identify agreements they may qualify for. It automatically retrieves identifiers such as email domains and IP address ranges.

Authors can request that their institution cover publication fees if it has signed a relevant agreement, the journal falls within its scope, and the article type is eligible.

Institution or university

Select the institution you are currently affiliated with. If you have more than one current affiliation, choose the one where you completed the research for this article.

Publishing model choice

*This page appears only when the institution has used its OA publishing allocation under its transformative agreement.

If no agreement covers their publication costs, authors can publish via the subscription model or use other funds to pay for open access.

Authors who choose open access will receive a breakdown of the charges.

Choose how to publish

Read this page in Chinese – 閱讀中文頁面

We encourage you to publish open access if you can — it makes your research more widely available. However, you will need to have the funds to pay the article processing charge (APC).

We suggest that you explore your funding options — It makes your decision easier. How to get information:

- Check our list of funders first, as your APC funding may be covered
- Consult our funding support service
- Contact the librarian at your institution

We know that this is not a quick decision — if you want to look for help to pay this before making a choice, you can return to this page when you're ready.

Please select your publication model:

☒ Publish open access – everyone can read your article for free online
 The APC for this article is £3780.09 / $4080.50 / €4120.89. The final amount will depend on any local taxes or admin fees.

☐ Publish subscription – readers will need a subscription to access your article
 Check the conditions of your funding before choosing subscription. Some funders require immediate open access (read about open access policy requirements).
 If you select the subscription publishing route, you accept the journal's standard licensing terms – including embargo and self-archiving policies. These terms replace any others that anyone may declare to apply to any version of the manuscript.
